

Ministry of Education Portal

Contributed by Mark Keenan

Ministry of Education Portal - this portal is now up and running for parents (www.parents.education.govt.nz). The website is a central place to give parents information and answers to their commonly asked questions in plain language so they feel well equipped to engage in their children's education.