2. We have been living at this property for..... (years).....(months).
3. The address has not been used as one of convenience for the purpose of gaining unfair priority in admission to Cockle Bay School under the in-zone criteria and I have been made aware that there will be consequences should I deliberately breach this statutory declaration and knowingly give a false address or make an in zone living arrangement which is only temporary for the purpose of enrolment.
4. I have provided evidence of living at this residence in the form of two of the following original documents in my name addressed to the above property:
- Formal boarding agreement
 - IRD posted communication
 - Bank statement showing board/rent payments
 - Household contents insurance for possessions at the above address.
5. I will notify the school immediately of any change of address.
6. I understand that if my child/ren move out of the school home zone within four terms of commencement at the school, the Board of Trustees reserves the right to annul the enrolment effective immediately.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957.
